

BRIDGNORTH LIVESTOCK MARKET

WEEKLY REPORT – 01.02.22

64 PRIME CATTLE

Auctioneer – Martin Clack 07977 067519

A reduced entry of cattle following Monday's trend, with better butcher's types selling well, up on last week with plenty of interest in shapey fed heifers.

The trade throughout the sale could only be described as a tale of two halves, with bulls easily sold and suckler bred clean cattle up to 311p/kg. More dairy bred steers and heifers were harder work, notably for cold, under-finished sorts reflected in the overall average.

Steers to 277p/kg and £1778 although the overall steer average would reflect at 157p/kg price range from top to bottom.

Butchers' heifers were sold to 311p/kg and 310p/kg, £1679.40 and £1670, six heifers realising over £1600.

41 bulls gathered together with quality varied and trade brisk to 259p/kg and 258p/kg or £1609 for suckler sorts, Friesian bulls to 210p/kg with only very straight legged sorts under 200p/kg.

Only 2 cows at £266 to £1016.

64 CLEAN CATTLE

9 STEERS SOLD TO AVERAGE 212P/KG

Best Limmie steers for the second week running topped the sale at 277p/kg from Messrs Evans (Curdale), with heavier sorts around 240p/kg, notably 760kg Lim at £1778.40 from Andrew Preece. Almost all the steers over £1400.

55 HEIFERS SOLD TO AVERAGE 230P/KG

Super stars from Curdale and Parksey sold to 311p/kg and 310p/kg respectably with several posh heifers 290p/kg to 299p/kg that other days might have taken top honours.

Expensive females from the Evans household to £1679.40, Marcus Whitehouse's £1669.70 and Andrew Preece in third spot at £1660. More dairy bred cattle met price resistance, with customers willing to pay for quality but struggling to accommodate under-finished cattle.

41 BULLS SOLD TO AVERAGE 215P/KG

As the clean, the top two prices only 1 pence difference 259p/kg for 530kg Limo from Andrew Preece and 258p/kg 590kg Limo from Dan Watkins and top price per head of £1605.50 another Limo from Dave Jones.

British Blues to £1589 for 700kg from Bob Mayer and Friesians to 210p/kg on two occasions from Blaeneifed Farm and Colin Evans. Square Holstein Friesians from James Woolrich to £1386.
