116 PRIME CATTLE

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

A smaller Bank Holiday week entry as anticipated saw trade a little sharper, with quality cattle helping to fulfil regular orders. With dead-weight prices trundling along the bottom, our commercial cattle would look well sold on the trade. Overall market average 173p/kg.

The steer entry was mixed selling from 109p/kg to 215p/kg or in excess of £1300 in the lump.

Butchers heifers stole the headlines selling to 236p/kg with several past 230p/kg. Heavy females to £1232.

Bull trade at least held its own with few best quality black and whites forward. Suckler bulls sold to 194p/kg with Friesians 149p/kg.

ONLY 7 COWS FORWARD

Only 7 cows forward met a sharp trade again with Devon sucklers to 128p/kg and British Blue crosses to 124p/kg. Meat Friesians to 90p/kg but were not assured.

DISPERSAL SALE ON BEHALF OF MW DAY – SATURDAY 30TH APRIL

On Saturday 30th April, Nock Deighton Agricultural LLP held a dispersal sale at Enclosure Farm, Clows Top, on behalf of Mr Maurice Day following two previous retirements!

Maurice bought the smallholding to rear Dexter cattle, ewes and lambs and the sale represented equipment associated with the small livestock enterprise, all of which was presented in excellent condition; a reflection on Mr Day's precise personality.

A field full of items from the usual lot 1, quantity of scrap, through to a very well looked after MF tractor attracted prospective purchasers from London to Wrexham. Although the second hand machinery trade nationally has been reported as very slow, clean genuine dispersal sales can still achieve premium prices.

Leading prices are as follows;

MF 240 Tractor & Loader	£3600
MF 224 Baler	£1220
Rotorspreader	£900
Big Bear 2wd Quad	£1390
Twose Flat Roll	£860
PZ Mower	£850
IAE Sheep Turnover Crate	£450
IAE Sheep Scales	£510
2 wheel Bale Trailer	£610 & £550

Should you be considering an on farm dispersal sale, please contact us for a no obligation quote. Call Martin Clack 07977 067519 or Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603.
