169 PRIME CATTLE

It was really fantastic to see more clean cattle penned this morning and with a full buyer contingent around the ring, trade was sharp with best quality cattle easiest sold. There were several runs of grass cattle forward many of which were over fat, too lean or non-Farm Assured – these proved more difficult to place.

Steers saw a much improved trade selling to 232p/kg or just short of £1600 in the lump.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

Our bull trade was very similar to last week with barley enough bulls to satisfy regular jobs. Again, heavy, older bull seeing less bidding with well-fleshed Holsteins easier sold than lean Continentals. Suckler bred Continentals sold to 206p/kg on five occasions, with black and whites to 169p/kg.

20 COWS SOLD TO AV. 100P/KG

A mixed bag of cows with well-fleshed cows that were Farm Assured in strongest demand, with small boning and foreign cows helping to deplete averages. Limousin cows 666kg sold to 140p/kg from Neil Perkins, with British Blues to 136p/kg from Frank Millichamp. Meat Holsteins to 117p/kg from Alan Mottram.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

BRIDGNORTH LIVESTOCK MARKET

WEEKLY REPORT – 03.11.15

PRIME CATTLE (RED)

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

169 PRIME CATTLE

It was really fantastic to see more clean cattle penned this morning and with a full buyer contingent around the ring, trade was sharp with best quality cattle easiest sold. There were several runs of grass cattle forward many of which were over fat, too lean or non-Farm Assured – these proved more difficult to place.

Steers saw a much improved trade selling to 232p/kg or just short of £1600 in the lump.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

Our bull trade was very similar to last week with barley enough bulls to satisfy regular jobs. Again, heavy, older bull seeing less bidding with well-fleshed Holsteins easier sold than lean Continentals. Suckler bred Continentals sold to 206p/kg on five occasions, with black and whites to 169p/kg.

20 COWS SOLD TO AV. 100P/KG

A mixed bag of cows with well-fleshed cows that were Farm Assured in strongest demand, with small boning and foreign cows helping to deplete averages. Limousin cows 666kg sold to 140p/kg from Neil Perkins, with British Blues to 136p/kg from Frank Millichamp. Meat Holsteins to 117p/kg from Alan Mottram.

MORE COWS & STOCK BULLS REQUIRED WITH FOUR BUYERS FOR THESE EACH WEEK

122 CLEAN CATTLE

22 steers sold to av. 189p/kg – Robert Lilley got up early this morning to sell early doors with his Blondes to 232p/kg and 229p/kg for 534kg and 542kg respectively. 688kg Blondes sold to 231p/kg from Frank Millichamp (£1589.28). 602kg Limousin sold to 228p/kg from John Gore.

100 heifers sold to av. 205p/kg – A super run from Richard Parkes sold to 261p/kg to average 246p/kg on twelve. Roger Jordin and Matthew Bower both sold to 250p/kg to above, with the Jordin stable selling three Limousins above £1500 to £1551 for 660kg. 538kg Limmies sold to 247p/kg from Kevin Scott, with 524kg Blondes to 244p/kg from Rob Lilley once again.

46 BULLS SOLD TO AV. 169P/KG

546kg and 530kg Black Lims from Charlie Sandells sold to 206p/kg, with Greg and Gary Thomas' pair of Limmies achieving the same for 546kg and 582kg. Limousin x Herefords also sold over £1300 for Todd Harris and over 20 months of age. Black and whites 522kg to 169p/kg from Charlie Lloyd.

169 PRIME CATTLE

It was really fantastic to see more clean cattle penned this morning and with a full buyer contingent around the ring, trade was sharp with best quality cattle easiest sold. There were several runs of grass cattle forward many of which were over fat, too lean or non-Farm Assured – these proved more difficult to place.

Steers saw a much improved trade selling to 232p/kg or just short of £1600 in the lump.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

Our bull trade was very similar to last week with barley enough bulls to satisfy regular jobs. Again, heavy, older bull seeing less bidding with well-fleshed Holsteins easier sold than lean Continentals. Suckler bred Continentals sold to 206p/kg on five occasions, with black and whites to 169p/kg.

20 COWS SOLD TO AV. 100P/KG

A mixed bag of cows with well-fleshed cows that were Farm Assured in strongest demand, with small boning and foreign cows helping to deplete averages. Limousin cows 666kg sold to 140p/kg from Neil Perkins, with British Blues to 136p/kg from Frank Millichamp. Meat Holsteins to 117p/kg from Alan Mottram.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

Steers saw a much improved trade selling to 232p/kg or just short of £1600 in the lump.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

Our bull trade was very similar to last week with barley enough bulls to satisfy regular jobs. Again, heavy, older bull seeing less bidding with well-fleshed Holsteins easier sold than lean Continentals. Suckler bred Continentals sold to 206p/kg on five occasions, with black and whites to 169p/kg.

BRIDGNORTH LIVESTOCK MARKET

WEEKLY REPORT – 03.11.15

PRIME CATTLE (RED)

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

169 PRIME CATTLE

It was really fantastic to see more clean cattle penned this morning and with a full buyer contingent around the ring, trade was sharp with best quality cattle easiest sold. There were several runs of grass cattle forward many of which were over fat, too lean or non-Farm Assured – these proved more difficult to place.

Steers saw a much improved trade selling to 232p/kg or just short of £1600 in the lump.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

Our bull trade was very similar to last week with barley enough bulls to satisfy regular jobs. Again, heavy, older bull seeing less bidding with well-fleshed Holsteins easier sold than lean Continentals. Suckler bred Continentals sold to 206p/kg on five occasions, with black and whites to 169p/kg.

20 COWS SOLD TO AV. 100P/KG

A mixed bag of cows with well-fleshed cows that were Farm Assured in strongest demand, with small boning and foreign cows helping to deplete averages. Limousin cows 666kg sold to 140p/kg from Neil Perkins, with British Blues to 136p/kg from Frank Millichamp. Meat Holsteins to 117p/kg from Alan Mottram.

MORE COWS & STOCK BULLS REQUIRED WITH FOUR BUYERS FOR THESE EACH WEEK

122 CLEAN CATTLE

22 steers sold to av. 189p/kg – Robert Lilley got up early this morning to sell early doors with his Blondes to 232p/kg and 229p/kg for 534kg and 542kg respectively. 688kg Blondes sold to 231p/kg from Frank Millichamp (£1589.28). 602kg Limousin sold to 228p/kg from John Gore.

100 heifers sold to av. 205p/kg – A super run from Richard Parkes sold to 261p/kg to average 246p/kg on twelve. Roger Jordin and Matthew Bower both sold to 250p/kg to above, with the Jordin stable selling three Limousins above £1500 to £1551 for 660kg. 538kg Limmies sold to 247p/kg from Kevin Scott, with 524kg Blondes to 244p/kg from Rob Lilley once again.

46 BULLS SOLD TO AV. 169P/KG

546kg and 530kg Black Lims from Charlie Sandells sold to 206p/kg, with Greg and Gary Thomas' pair of Limmies achieving the same for 546kg and 582kg. Limousin x Herefords also sold over £1300 for Todd Harris and over 20 months of age. Black and whites 522kg to 169p/kg from Charlie Lloyd.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

BRIDGNORTH LIVESTOCK MARKET

WEEKLY REPORT – 03.11.15

PRIME CATTLE (RED)

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

169 PRIME CATTLE

It was really fantastic to see more clean cattle penned this morning and with a full buyer contingent around the ring, trade was sharp with best quality cattle easiest sold. There were several runs of grass cattle forward many of which were over fat, too lean or non-Farm Assured – these proved more difficult to place.

Steers saw a much improved trade selling to 232p/kg or just short of £1600 in the lump.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

Our bull trade was very similar to last week with barley enough bulls to satisfy regular jobs. Again, heavy, older bull seeing less bidding with well-fleshed Holsteins easier sold than lean Continentals. Suckler bred Continentals sold to 206p/kg on five occasions, with black and whites to 169p/kg.

20 COWS SOLD TO AV. 100P/KG

A mixed bag of cows with well-fleshed cows that were Farm Assured in strongest demand, with small boning and foreign cows helping to deplete averages. Limousin cows 666kg sold to 140p/kg from Neil Perkins, with British Blues to 136p/kg from Frank Millichamp. Meat Holsteins to 117p/kg from Alan Mottram.

MORE COWS & STOCK BULLS REQUIRED WITH FOUR BUYERS FOR THESE EACH WEEK

122 CLEAN CATTLE

22 steers sold to av. 189p/kg – Robert Lilley got up early this morning to sell early doors with his Blondes to 232p/kg and 229p/kg for 534kg and 542kg respectively. 688kg Blondes sold to 231p/kg from Frank Millichamp (£1589.28). 602kg Limousin sold to 228p/kg from John Gore.

100 heifers sold to av. 205p/kg – A super run from Richard Parkes sold to 261p/kg to average 246p/kg on twelve. Roger Jordin and Matthew Bower both sold to 250p/kg to above, with the Jordin stable selling three Limousins above £1500 to £1551 for 660kg. 538kg Limmies sold to 247p/kg from Kevin Scott, with 524kg Blondes to 244p/kg from Rob Lilley once again.

46 BULLS SOLD TO AV. 169P/KG

546kg and 530kg Black Lims from Charlie Sandells sold to 206p/kg, with Greg and Gary Thomas' pair of Limmies achieving the same for 546kg and 582kg. Limousin x Herefords also sold over £1300 for Todd Harris and over 20 months of age. Black and whites 522kg to 169p/kg from Charlie Lloyd.

PRIME CATTLE (RED)

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

169 PRIME CATTLE

It was really fantastic to see more clean cattle penned this morning and with a full buyer contingent around the ring, trade was sharp with best quality cattle easiest sold. There were several runs of grass cattle forward many of which were over fat, too lean or non-Farm Assured – these proved more difficult to place.

Steers saw a much improved trade selling to 232p/kg or just short of £1600 in the lump.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

Our bull trade was very similar to last week with barley enough bulls to satisfy regular jobs. Again, heavy, older bull seeing less bidding with well-fleshed Holsteins easier sold than lean Continentals. Suckler bred Continentals sold to 206p/kg on five occasions, with black and whites to 169p/kg.

20 COWS SOLD TO AV. 100P/KG

A mixed bag of cows with well-fleshed cows that were Farm Assured in strongest demand, with small boning and foreign cows helping to deplete averages. Limousin cows 666kg sold to 140p/kg from Neil Perkins, with British Blues to 136p/kg from Frank Millichamp. Meat Holsteins to 117p/kg from Alan Mottram.

MORE COWS & STOCK BULLS REQUIRED WITH FOUR BUYERS FOR THESE EACH WEEK

122 CLEAN CATTLE

22 steers sold to av. 189p/kg – Robert Lilley got up early this morning to sell early doors with his Blondes to 232p/kg and 229p/kg for 534kg and 542kg respectively. 688kg Blondes sold to 231p/kg from Frank Millichamp (£1589.28). 602kg Limousin sold to 228p/kg from John Gore.

100 heifers sold to av. 205p/kg – A super run from Richard Parkes sold to 261p/kg to average 246p/kg on twelve. Roger Jordin and Matthew Bower both sold to 250p/kg to above, with the Jordin stable selling three Limousins above £1500 to £1551 for 660kg. 538kg Limmies sold to 247p/kg from Kevin Scott, with 524kg Blondes to 244p/kg from Rob Lilley once again.

46 BULLS SOLD TO AV. 169P/KG

546kg and 530kg Black Lims from Charlie Sandells sold to 206p/kg, with Greg and Gary Thomas' pair of Limmies achieving the same for 546kg and 582kg. Limousin x Herefords also sold over £1300 for Todd Harris and over 20 months of age. Black and whites 522kg to 169p/kg from Charlie Lloyd.

PRIME CATTLE (RED)

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

169 PRIME CATTLE

It was really fantastic to see more clean cattle penned this morning and with a full buyer contingent around the ring, trade was sharp with best quality cattle easiest sold. There were several runs of grass cattle forward many of which were over fat, too lean or non-Farm Assured – these proved more difficult to place.

Steers saw a much improved trade selling to 232p/kg or just short of £1600 in the lump.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

Our bull trade was very similar to last week with barley enough bulls to satisfy regular jobs. Again, heavy, older bull seeing less bidding with well-fleshed Holsteins easier sold than lean Continentals. Suckler bred Continentals sold to 206p/kg on five occasions, with black and whites to 169p/kg.

20 COWS SOLD TO AV. 100P/KG

A mixed bag of cows with well-fleshed cows that were Farm Assured in strongest demand, with small boning and foreign cows helping to deplete averages. Limousin cows 666kg sold to 140p/kg from Neil Perkins, with British Blues to 136p/kg from Frank Millichamp. Meat Holsteins to 117p/kg from Alan Mottram.

MORE COWS & STOCK BULLS REQUIRED WITH FOUR BUYERS FOR THESE EACH WEEK

122 CLEAN CATTLE

22 steers sold to av. 189p/kg – Robert Lilley got up early this morning to sell early doors with his Blondes to 232p/kg and 229p/kg for 534kg and 542kg respectively. 688kg Blondes sold to 231p/kg from Frank Millichamp (£1589.28). 602kg Limousin sold to 228p/kg from John Gore.

100 heifers sold to av. 205p/kg – A super run from Richard Parkes sold to 261p/kg to average 246p/kg on twelve. Roger Jordin and Matthew Bower both sold to 250p/kg to above, with the Jordin stable selling three Limousins above £1500 to £1551 for 660kg. 538kg Limmies sold to 247p/kg from Kevin Scott, with 524kg Blondes to 244p/kg from Rob Lilley once again.

46 BULLS SOLD TO AV. 169P/KG

546kg and 530kg Black Lims from Charlie Sandells sold to 206p/kg, with Greg and Gary Thomas' pair of Limmies achieving the same for 546kg and 582kg. Limousin x Herefords also sold over £1300 for Todd Harris and over 20 months of age. Black and whites 522kg to 169p/kg from Charlie Lloyd.

It was really fantastic to see more clean cattle penned this morning and with a full buyer contingent around the ring, trade was sharp with best quality cattle easiest sold. Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

Our bull trade was very similar to last week with barley enough bulls to satisfy regular jobs. Again, heavy, older bull seeing less bidding with well-fleshed Holsteins easier sold than lean Continentals. Suckler bred Continentals sold to 206p/kg on five occasions, with black and whites to 169p/kg.

PRIME CATTLE (RED)

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

169 PRIME CATTLE

It was really fantastic to see more clean cattle penned this morning and with a full buyer contingent around the ring, trade was sharp with best quality cattle easiest sold. There were several runs of grass cattle forward many of which were over fat, too lean or non-Farm Assured – these proved more difficult to place.

Steers saw a much improved trade selling to 232p/kg or just short of £1600 in the lump.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

Our bull trade was very similar to last week with barley enough bulls to satisfy regular jobs. Again, heavy, older bull seeing less bidding with well-fleshed Holsteins easier sold than lean Continentals. Suckler bred Continentals sold to 206p/kg on five occasions, with black and whites to 169p/kg.

20 COWS SOLD TO AV. 100P/KG

A mixed bag of cows with well-fleshed cows that were Farm Assured in strongest demand, with small boning and foreign cows helping to deplete averages. Limousin cows 666kg sold to 140p/kg from Neil Perkins, with British Blues to 136p/kg from Frank Millichamp. Meat Holsteins to 117p/kg from Alan Mottram.

MORE COWS & STOCK BULLS REQUIRED WITH FOUR BUYERS FOR THESE EACH WEEK

122 CLEAN CATTLE

22 steers sold to av. 189p/kg – Robert Lilley got up early this morning to sell early doors with his Blondes to 232p/kg and 229p/kg for 534kg and 542kg respectively. 688kg Blondes sold to 231p/kg from Frank Millichamp (£1589.28). 602kg Limousin sold to 228p/kg from John Gore.

100 heifers sold to av. 205p/kg – A super run from Richard Parkes sold to 261p/kg to average 246p/kg on twelve. Roger Jordin and Matthew Bower both sold to 250p/kg to above, with the Jordin stable selling three Limousins above £1500 to £1551 for 660kg. 538kg Limmies sold to 247p/kg from Kevin Scott, with 524kg Blondes to 244p/kg from Rob Lilley once again.

46 BULLS SOLD TO AV. 169P/KG

546kg and 530kg Black Lims from Charlie Sandells sold to 206p/kg, with Greg and Gary Thomas' pair of Limmies achieving the same for 546kg and 582kg. Limousin x Herefords also sold over £1300 for Todd Harris and over 20 months of age. Black and whites 522kg to 169p/kg from Charlie Lloyd.

It was really fantastic to see more clean cattle penned this morning and with a full buyer contingent around the ring, trade was sharp with best quality cattle easiest sold. Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

Our bull trade was very similar to last week with barley enough bulls to satisfy regular jobs. Again, heavy, older bull seeing less bidding with well-fleshed Holsteins easier sold than lean Continentals. Suckler bred Continentals sold to 206p/kg on five occasions, with black and whites to 169p/kg.

PRIME CATTLE (RED)

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

169 PRIME CATTLE

It was really fantastic to see more clean cattle penned this morning and with a full buyer contingent around the ring, trade was sharp with best quality cattle easiest sold. There were several runs of grass cattle forward many of which were over fat, too lean or non-Farm Assured – these proved more difficult to place.

Steers saw a much improved trade selling to 232p/kg or just short of £1600 in the lump.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

Our bull trade was very similar to last week with barley enough bulls to satisfy regular jobs. Again, heavy, older bull seeing less bidding with well-fleshed Holsteins easier sold than lean Continentals. Suckler bred Continentals sold to 206p/kg on five occasions, with black and whites to 169p/kg.

20 COWS SOLD TO AV. 100P/KG

A mixed bag of cows with well-fleshed cows that were Farm Assured in strongest demand, with small boning and foreign cows helping to deplete averages. Limousin cows 666kg sold to 140p/kg from Neil Perkins, with British Blues to 136p/kg from Frank Millichamp. Meat Holsteins to 117p/kg from Alan Mottram.

MORE COWS & STOCK BULLS REQUIRED WITH FOUR BUYERS FOR THESE EACH WEEK

122 CLEAN CATTLE

22 steers sold to av. 189p/kg – Robert Lilley got up early this morning to sell early doors with his Blondes to 232p/kg and 229p/kg for 534kg and 542kg respectively. 688kg Blondes sold to 231p/kg from Frank Millichamp (£1589.28). 602kg Limousin sold to 228p/kg from John Gore.

100 heifers sold to av. 205p/kg – A super run from Richard Parkes sold to 261p/kg to average 246p/kg on twelve. Roger Jordin and Matthew Bower both sold to 250p/kg to above, with the Jordin stable selling three Limousins above £1500 to £1551 for 660kg. 538kg Limmies sold to 247p/kg from Kevin Scott, with 524kg Blondes to 244p/kg from Rob Lilley once again.

46 BULLS SOLD TO AV. 169P/KG

546kg and 530kg Black Lims from Charlie Sandells sold to 206p/kg, with Greg and Gary Thomas' pair of Limmies achieving the same for 546kg and 582kg. Limousin x Herefords also sold over £1300 for Todd Harris and over 20 months of age. Black and whites 522kg to 169p/kg from Charlie Lloyd.

It was really fantastic to see more clean cattle penned this morning and with a full buyer contingent around the ring, trade was sharp with best quality cattle easiest sold. Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

BRIDGNORTH LIVESTOCK MARKET

WEEKLY REPORT – 03.11.15

PRIME CATTLE (RED)

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

169 PRIME CATTLE

It was really fantastic to see more clean cattle penned this morning and with a full buyer contingent around the ring, trade was sharp with best quality cattle easiest sold. There were several runs of grass cattle forward many of which were over fat, too lean or non-Farm Assured – these proved more difficult to place.

Steers saw a much improved trade selling to 232p/kg or just short of £1600 in the lump.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

Our bull trade was very similar to last week with barley enough bulls to satisfy regular jobs. Again, heavy, older bull seeing less bidding with well-fleshed Holsteins easier sold than lean Continentals. Suckler bred Continentals sold to 206p/kg on five occasions, with black and whites to 169p/kg.

20 COWS SOLD TO AV. 100P/KG

A mixed bag of cows with well-fleshed cows that were Farm Assured in strongest demand, with small boning and foreign cows helping to deplete averages. Limousin cows 666kg sold to 140p/kg from Neil Perkins, with British Blues to 136p/kg from Frank Millichamp. Meat Holsteins to 117p/kg from Alan Mottram.

MORE COWS & STOCK BULLS REQUIRED WITH FOUR BUYERS FOR THESE EACH WEEK

122 CLEAN CATTLE

22 steers sold to av. 189p/kg – Robert Lilley got up early this morning to sell early doors with his Blondes to 232p/kg and 229p/kg for 534kg and 542kg respectively. 688kg Blondes sold to 231p/kg from Frank Millichamp (£1589.28). 602kg Limousin sold to 228p/kg from John Gore.

100 heifers sold to av. 205p/kg – A super run from Richard Parkes sold to 261p/kg to average 246p/kg on twelve. Roger Jordin and Matthew Bower both sold to 250p/kg to above, with the Jordin stable selling three Limousins above £1500 to £1551 for 660kg. 538kg Limmies sold to 247p/kg from Kevin Scott, with 524kg Blondes to 244p/kg from Rob Lilley once again.

46 BULLS SOLD TO AV. 169P/KG

546kg and 530kg Black Lims from Charlie Sandells sold to 206p/kg, with Greg and Gary Thomas' pair of Limmies achieving the same for 546kg and 582kg. Limousin x Herefords also sold over £1300 for Todd Harris and over 20 months of age. Black and whites 522kg to 169p/kg from Charlie Lloyd.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

BRIDGNORTH LIVESTOCK MARKET

WEEKLY REPORT – 03.11.15

PRIME CATTLE (RED)

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

169 PRIME CATTLE

It was really fantastic to see more clean cattle penned this morning and with a full buyer contingent around the ring, trade was sharp with best quality cattle easiest sold. There were several runs of grass cattle forward many of which were over fat, too lean or non-Farm Assured – these proved more difficult to place.

Steers saw a much improved trade selling to 232p/kg or just short of £1600 in the lump.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

Our bull trade was very similar to last week with barley enough bulls to satisfy regular jobs. Again, heavy, older bull seeing less bidding with well-fleshed Holsteins easier sold than lean Continentals. Suckler bred Continentals sold to 206p/kg on five occasions, with black and whites to 169p/kg.

20 COWS SOLD TO AV. 100P/KG

A mixed bag of cows with well-fleshed cows that were Farm Assured in strongest demand, with small boning and foreign cows helping to deplete averages. Limousin cows 666kg sold to 140p/kg from Neil Perkins, with British Blues to 136p/kg from Frank Millichamp. Meat Holsteins to 117p/kg from Alan Mottram.

MORE COWS & STOCK BULLS REQUIRED WITH FOUR BUYERS FOR THESE EACH WEEK

122 CLEAN CATTLE

22 steers sold to av. 189p/kg – Robert Lilley got up early this morning to sell early doors with his Blondes to 232p/kg and 229p/kg for 534kg and 542kg respectively. 688kg Blondes sold to 231p/kg from Frank Millichamp (£1589.28). 602kg Limousin sold to 228p/kg from John Gore.

100 heifers sold to av. 205p/kg – A super run from Richard Parkes sold to 261p/kg to average 246p/kg on twelve. Roger Jordin and Matthew Bower both sold to 250p/kg to above, with the Jordin stable selling three Limousins above £1500 to £1551 for 660kg. 538kg Limmies sold to 247p/kg from Kevin Scott, with 524kg Blondes to 244p/kg from Rob Lilley once again.

46 BULLS SOLD TO AV. 169P/KG

546kg and 530kg Black Lims from Charlie Sandells sold to 206p/kg, with Greg and Gary Thomas' pair of Limmies achieving the same for 546kg and 582kg. Limousin x Herefords also sold over £1300 for Todd Harris and over 20 months of age. Black and whites 522kg to 169p/kg from Charlie Lloyd.

BRIDGNORTH LIVESTOCK MARKET

WEEKLY REPORT – 03.11.15

PRIME CATTLE (RED)

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

169 PRIME CATTLE

It was really fantastic to see more clean cattle penned this morning and with a full buyer contingent around the ring, trade was sharp with best quality cattle easiest sold. There were several runs of grass cattle forward many of which were over fat, too lean or non-Farm Assured – these proved more difficult to place.

Steers saw a much improved trade selling to 232p/kg or just short of £1600 in the lump.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

Our bull trade was very similar to last week with barley enough bulls to satisfy regular jobs. Again, heavy, older bull seeing less bidding with well-fleshed Holsteins easier sold than lean Continentals. Suckler bred Continentals sold to 206p/kg on five occasions, with black and whites to 169p/kg.

20 COWS SOLD TO AV. 100P/KG

A mixed bag of cows with well-fleshed cows that were Farm Assured in strongest demand, with small boning and foreign cows helping to deplete averages. Limousin cows 666kg sold to 140p/kg from Neil Perkins, with British Blues to 136p/kg from Frank Millichamp. Meat Holsteins to 117p/kg from Alan Mottram.

MORE COWS & STOCK BULLS REQUIRED WITH FOUR BUYERS FOR THESE EACH WEEK

122 CLEAN CATTLE

22 steers sold to av. 189p/kg – Robert Lilley got up early this morning to sell early doors with his Blondes to 232p/kg and 229p/kg for 534kg and 542kg respectively. 688kg Blondes sold to 231p/kg from Frank Millichamp (£1589.28). 602kg Limousin sold to 228p/kg from John Gore.

100 heifers sold to av. 205p/kg – A super run from Richard Parkes sold to 261p/kg to average 246p/kg on twelve. Roger Jordin and Matthew Bower both sold to 250p/kg to above, with the Jordin stable selling three Limousins above £1500 to £1551 for 660kg. 538kg Limmies sold to 247p/kg from Kevin Scott, with 524kg Blondes to 244p/kg from Rob Lilley once again.

46 BULLS SOLD TO AV. 169P/KG

546kg and 530kg Black Lims from Charlie Sandells sold to 206p/kg, with Greg and Gary Thomas' pair of Limmies achieving the same for 546kg and 582kg. Limousin x Herefords also sold over £1300 for Todd Harris and over 20 months of age. Black and whites 522kg to 169p/kg from Charlie Lloyd.

BRIDGNORTH LIVESTOCK MARKET

WEEKLY REPORT – 03.11.15

PRIME CATTLE (RED)

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

169 PRIME CATTLE

It was really fantastic to see more clean cattle penned this morning and with a full buyer contingent around the ring, trade was sharp with best quality cattle easiest sold. There were several runs of grass cattle forward many of which were over fat, too lean or non-Farm Assured – these proved more difficult to place.

Steers saw a much improved trade selling to 232p/kg or just short of £1600 in the lump.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.

Our bull trade was very similar to last week with barley enough bulls to satisfy regular jobs. Again, heavy, older bull seeing less bidding with well-fleshed Holsteins easier sold than lean Continentals. Suckler bred Continentals sold to 206p/kg on five occasions, with black and whites to 169p/kg.

20 COWS SOLD TO AV. 100P/KG

A mixed bag of cows with well-fleshed cows that were Farm Assured in strongest demand, with small boning and foreign cows helping to deplete averages. Limousin cows 666kg sold to 140p/kg from Neil Perkins, with British Blues to 136p/kg from Frank Millichamp. Meat Holsteins to 117p/kg from Alan Mottram.

MORE COWS & STOCK BULLS REQUIRED WITH FOUR BUYERS FOR THESE EACH WEEK

122 CLEAN CATTLE

22 steers sold to av. 189p/kg – Robert Lilley got up early this morning to sell early doors with his Blondes to 232p/kg and 229p/kg for 534kg and 542kg respectively. 688kg Blondes sold to 231p/kg from Frank Millichamp (£1589.28). 602kg Limousin sold to 228p/kg from John Gore.

100 heifers sold to av. 205p/kg – A super run from Richard Parkes sold to 261p/kg to average 246p/kg on twelve. Roger Jordin and Matthew Bower both sold to 250p/kg to above, with the Jordin stable selling three Limousins above £1500 to £1551 for 660kg. 538kg Limmies sold to 247p/kg from Kevin Scott, with 524kg Blondes to 244p/kg from Rob Lilley once again.

46 BULLS SOLD TO AV. 169P/KG

546kg and 530kg Black Lims from Charlie Sandells sold to 206p/kg, with Greg and Gary Thomas' pair of Limmies achieving the same for 546kg and 582kg. Limousin x Herefords also sold over £1300 for Todd Harris and over 20 months of age. Black and whites 522kg to 169p/kg from Charlie Lloyd.

Heifer trade was a revelation with handy-weights to 261p/kg with ten heifers 250p/kg or above. Heavier female saw a sharper trade than last week, with four heifers passed £1500 per head.
