BRIDGNORTH LIVESTOCK MARKET WEEKLY REPORT – 03.11.20

98 PRIME CATTLE

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

Desperately short of numbers today with our regular buyers reporting strong retail demand. Consequently a roaring trade resulted on all commodities. This was the dearest cattle trade ever experienced in Bridgnorth, including Christmas auctions! Our recommendation is to sell now whilst the wind is blowing in the right direction.

A small sample of steers saw best quality to 272p/kg or £1445.60 in the lump with no heavies forward.

Heifer trade was out of this world with three heifers selling to 287p/kg, with four others passed 280p/kg. Any cattle with meat and finish were well rewarded.

Bull trade started the day off on the right foot, with Continentals selling to 230p/kg and with no really heavy bulls, £1469 in the lump. Black & Whites were as per normal in strong demand and sold to 197p/kg.
