106 PRIME CATTLE

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

An improved trade with too few cattle to satisfy demand and buyers leaving needing more stock. The Easter Primestock Show encouraged a nice entry of handy butchers' cattle along with some useful bulls. More commercial clean cattle saw improved returns.

A small show of steers sold to 238p/kg with heavy bullocks to £1439. More well-finished steers are required each week.

Butchers' heifers saw a sharp level of trade all through, with the best to 255p/kg and many over 240p/kg.

There were some very tidy suckler bulls presented as the time of year for spring born bulls is almost upon us. Best bulls sold to 227p/kg, with more over 200p/kg than recent weeks. Holstein trade was good again, with black and whites selling to 178p/kg.

Our great thanks to Mr Andrew Meredith for judging and his deliberations resulted in the following;

1830 HOGGS

Auctioneer: Martin Clack 079777 067519

An average of 180p/kg, 10p/kg less than last week although comparing very favourably with other auctions and dead-weight centres.

A shortage of quality handy-weights and a very sharp trade selling to 206p/kg with plenty over 200p/kg, with Nigel Kinsey taking top honours, notably 46kg at £93.70.

Light weights possibly a little dearer with very ordinary hogs 30kg to 35kg over 180p/kg to 187p/kg from Rob Rose. 35.5kg to 187.5p/kg from Gary Shorthouse and 33kg from Phil Jordan to 186p/kg.

Hogs 44kg plus a lot harder to sell. The heavier sheep, the bigger the drop from last week with only the best over £90 to £93.60 and more concerning, plenty of trading around £80.
