

BRIDGNORTH LIVESTOCK MARKET WEEKLY REPORT – 05.05.20

127 PRIME CATTLE

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

A little more life in the trade as the better cuts see a little more demand. The averages were helped by some very tidy cattle forward this morning but with all well meated types seeing competitive bidding. Bull trade generally lethargic but with vendors leaving “the darkside” to sell live perhaps not as poor as the auctioneer imagines. Fresh buying support for heavy breakers in the bulls and the lean today.

More steers required with more purchasers today. Handyweights sold to 208p/kg with heavy Continentals selling to £1334.

A tremendous sample of butchers heifers met strong demand selling to 261p/kg with several other 250p/kg and above. Handyweights sold to £1351.92 in the lump.

Bull trade was steady as reported everywhere with no bulls 200pence or above. Handy Continentals sold to 198p/kg with heavier Limousins to £1620.30. Not many Black and Whites forward sold to a similar trade to last week, definitely no worse. Holsteins sold to 164p/kg.

8 COWS SOLD TO OV.AV. 109P/KG

Cow trade was good especially with some flesh on board. 740kg Limmie cows sold to 141p/kg (£1043.40). Other Continentals sold to 129p/kg + 125p/kg. Plain cows to 86p/kg.

ANNUAL MAYFAIR STORE SALE REPORT

390 STORE / BREEDING CATTLE

A tremendous entry of cattle for Annual Mayfair this year. Grazing and feeding cattle met a good level of demand despite the lethargic prime values at this time of year. No doubt recent rainstorms have aided grass growth so turning out beasts were easily sold.

Cows and calves created much interest with 6½ year old cows with strong Limousin calves selling to £1390 from Walter Davies. 8 year old cows with young calves to £1170 from Sarah Levi. Pedigree Limousin stock bulls at 4 years old sold to £1500 again from Mr Davies.

British Blue cross steers 690kg at 29½ months sold to £1080 from Steve Lewis with top sucklers from Keith Truslove selling to £1045 for 12m at 482kg. Blonde cross steers from Chris Walker sold to 242p/kg for 326kg.

Charolais cross heifers from Tony England sold well to £1035 for 460kg with his Devon's to £1000. 355kg Limousins from Mr Christopher sold to 238p/kg at 13m. All native breed Angus and Hereford Stores sold above expectations with Angus cross steers to £950.00 and Angus heifers to £890 all from Steve Lewis.

Our thanks to all vendors and buyers for their continued support during these unprecedented times.

Next Store Sale is Friday 15th May – Supplementary Mayfair. Entries for catalogue by Monday 11th May at 12noon.
