

BRIDGNORTH LIVESTOCK MARKET

WEEKLY REPORT – 05.10.21

125 PRIME CATTLE

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

A few more cattle forward which was great to see but definitely not overdone. Trade was good but perhaps without the “fire” of last week. Several lean cattle penned which definitely would have stood some dear feed!

A small sprinkling of steers sold to a high of 250p/kg or £1765 in the lump. Very few best sorts available here.

Best heifers tended to be too heavy for most butcher requirements but sold to 312p/kg with a second to 305p/kg. Heavy heifer sold to £1780 in the lump.

A sharp bull trade but with most of the best bulls above 700kg. Continentals sold to 250p/kg with two heavies over £1800 in money. Black and White bulls sold to 210p/kg.

One cow sold to 130p/kg for 770kg farm assured Blonde cross adding up to £1001.
