

BRIDGNORTH LIVESTOCK MARKET

WEEKLY REPORT – 07.07.20

144 PRIME CATTLE

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

A blistering show of cattle with probably more commercial sorts too short in supply. New faces around the ring livened the bidding up to end especially in the bull department. Several buyers left short of numbers today, more good entries required next week please!

Steer entries were low selling to 230p/kg with only 34 month old bullocks below 200p/kg. Heavy steers to £1536.40.

Many superstars forward in the heifer department in an exceptionally show of handyweight butchers cattle. Truth is we need a few more commercial types as well! Top spot was 263p/kg with numerous females above 240p/kg.

More bulls are currently needed with fresh buying support spicing up the job up a little! Continentals sold to 232p/kg. Black and White bulls towards 200p/kg. Come and catch the trade whilst you can!

3 CULL COWS

Only 3 cows forward with buyers waiting. Limousin cross cows to 140p/kg for 712kg.
