Bridgnorth Livestock Market Holds Charity Auction to Support Cancer Research UK UK

SOLD £7,000

A very short notice Charity Auction was conducted in Bridgnorth Market Store Cattle sale on Friday 4th June.

Having been contacted by Mr Robert Pugh regarding the sale of cattle belonging to one his workforce, Kelly Millington-Preece, who is fighting cancer and unable to look after livestock for the time being, Mark Burgoyne offered them for sale on the above date.

Kelly and her grandfather Mr Michael Millington, generously donated their favourite beast, a British Blue cross Friesian Heifer to Cancer Research UK.

The heifer was purchased and the resold on seven occasions, eventually being bought by Mr Robert Pugh who intends to put her in calf and give her back to Kelly once her treatment has finished.

In total the heifer realised £7,000 for the charity Cancer Relief, with further donations anticipated.

Thank you so much to the following who all purchased and resold the animal, Auctioneer Mark Burgoyne, Martin Clack for Nock Deighton, John Hancock, David Dobbin, Mike Pearson, Andrew Dalton, Simon Pennington, Ed Bunning

Nock Deighton Agricultural LLP would like to thank the most generous support of the farming community and wish Kelly all the strength and good luck for the future. We all look forward to seeing her with her calf in Bridgnorth when she is able.
