

BRIDGNORTH LIVESTOCK MARKET WEEKLY REPORT – 14.01.20

156 PRIME CATTLE

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne – 07831 192603

Improved numbers forward saw trade a little easier, following the last few weeks bonanza. Perhaps 2-3p/kg less generally but with best heifers a firm trade with many of these heavy enough for most tastes. There were more commercial types penned this morning which helped to depress overall averages. A good trade for the time of year!

Decent numbers of steers but with few best quality sold to 206p/kg or £1,306 in the lump. Shorthorn steers to 186p/kg and Hereford crosses to 170p/kg.

Butchers heifers sold to 251p/kg, with numerous others 240p/kg or more. Heavy females sold nicely to £1,389 in the lump.

Bull trade very mixed today, with more second string types forward. Continentals sold to 206p/kg on two occasions, with heavy Continentals to £1,463. Black and White bulls sold well to 179p/kg.

One cow met a steady trade selling to 80p/kg for 576kg Charolais cross.
