Prime Cattle (Red)

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

134 PRIME CATTLE

As numbers of fit cattle seem to be tightening up nationally, buyers were keener to secure beasts and consequently all shapes and sizes saw the price better with best quality especially sought after.

Clean cattle sold to average 193p/kg including several Holstein bullocks forward. Very few best steers available which sold to 211p/kg. Holstein bullocks met plenty of demand selling to 159p/kg. Loads of men wanted butchers heifers and many more could have sold as some buyers left short. Top price was 238p/kg with seven others 230p/kg or more.

Buyers for second quality cattle could not buy to face the price today!

A much improved bull trade but averages could camouflage this with many plain sorts penned. There were no absolute stars forward with top price for Limousin sucklers 195p/kg. Square Friesian bulls with finish sold to 180p/kg.

ONLY 9 COWS saw a similar trade with younger Limousin cows selling to 164p/kg at 760kg and Blondes to 163p/kg for 712kg. Herefords sold to 126p/kg. Plain cows 60p/kg upwards.

ONLY 68 CLEAN CATTLE

20 steers sold to an overall average of 169p/kg. 480kg Simmentals from Dave Chilton took the plaudits at 211p/kg, with 504kg Limousins from Ed Roberts to 210p/kg. Michael Hodgetts and Vincent Evans also sold to 201p/kg and 200p/kg. Charolais from the Hodgetts stable lumped up to £1326. Hereford cross Holsteins hit 160p/kg from Dave Cantrill, with Holsteins to 159p/kg from Simon Pennington.

48 heifers sold to average 204p/kg. A cracking heifer market was topped by Steve Perkins' 484kg Limousin at 238p/kg, with Dave Chilton, Matt Bower and Roger Jordin all selling to 230p/kg and more. 666kg Blondes from Roy Kinnish stacked up well at £1365.30.

64 YOUNG BULLS OV. AV. 152P/KG

Only a sprinkling of meat Continentals forward with three or four runs of very plain, shapeless types not helping averages but still finding plenty of buyers.

Richard Bebb sold the last bull of last year's batch to 195p/kg, only to be pipped by Robert Stubbs selling 662kg to 197p/kg (£1304.14).

Friesians sold to 180p/kg from Mary Beaumont. Ultra-plain brethren from 104p/kg-130p/kg.
