

BRIDGNORTH LIVESTOCK MARKET

WEEKLY REPORT – 23.04.19

133 PRIME CATTLE

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

A few less clean forward this morning as anticipated following the Easter Bank Holiday. Trade held firm all through with, once again, meated handy-weights at a marked premium. Best butchers' cattle are really adding up at the moment when compared to larger wholesaling cattle.

Our steer entry included few best sorts this morning and sold to 204p/kg, with the heaviest of these to £1316.

Best shapes with the ideal weight hard to find once again and saw the cream selling to 259p/kg, with heavier breakers selling just short of £1400.

Some useful bulls penned this morning met strong bidding, with best shapes selling to 223p/kg and heavies to £1524 in the lump.

A sharp black and white trade with little below 160p/kg selling to £1395 in the lump.

1 CULL COW SOLD TO 142P/KG

A smart Blonde from Brian & Dan Watkins sold to 142p/kg for 716kg.
