138 PRIME CATTLE

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

Similar numbers forward with some good cattle penned met a similar trade, with buyers determines to keep their price down! The fire is definitely out of the best sorts at the moment but with heavier clean seeing slight improvements as long as they were below 700kg. 13 buyers were present today.

A sprinkling of steers forward saw 680kg to 205p/kg or £1394 in the lump.

Butchers heifers were generally a little heavier this week and sold to 239p/kg with heavies to £1333.

More heavier Continental bulls forward met a competitive trade with plenty of competition around the ring but difficult to achieve that magic 200p/kg figure. Friesians to 155p/kg.

The cow trade excelled once again as numbers continue to tighten up nationally. Well-finished Continentals sold to 142p/kg for 844kg (£1199), with plenty of others above £1000. 582kg steaking Holsteins to 109p/kg. Most dairy cows forward were plain boners and met a sharper trade 65p/kg-80p/kg.
