111 PRIME CATTLE

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

Cattle numbers tight once again but quality improved generally with some well-finished heifers forward and butchers keen to purchase also. There were still a few lean grassy sorts depleting averages and would have benefitted from feed with time on their side.

A small show of steers saw plenty of demand selling to 230p/kg with few heavy bullocks forward.

Best butchers heifers sold to 249p/kg with heavies to £1432 in the lump. Well-finished quality cattle were easily sold and more were needed to satisfy orders, as some buyers left almost empty-handed.

Bull trade was sharper with a strong Holstein influence. Well-finished Continentals sold to 215p/kg. Leaner bulls saw better demand and with black and whites the customary sharp trade selling to 168p/kg.

ONLY 6 COWS FORWARD saw red Herefords selling well to 128p/kg for 650kg and lean Blondes to 116p/kg for 644kg. Meated Friesians sold to 114p/kg for 630kg, with Bridgnorth trade holding up with trade slipping nationally.

61 CLEAN CATTLE

Only 5 steers sold to average 224p/kg – Handy Limousins from Charlie Sandells sold to 230p/kg for 492kg at 14m, with 610kg Blues to 228p/kg from David Chilton.

MORE STEERS NEXT WEEK PLEASE

56 heifers sold to av. 209p/kg – Matt Bower took the limelight here with Lims to 241p/kg and 249p/kg, closely tailed by Roger Jordin selling to 247p/kg. It was nice to see Richard Parkes back in the fold with his usual quality selling to 246p/kg, with heavies to £1432.08 for 612kg Limousins. Dave Preece also sold passed £1400.

55 BULLS SOLD TO AV. 168P/KG

A strong Holstein influence in this department but a useful trade with five bidders for all shapes and sizes. Dave Preece's 538kg Limousin sold nicely to 215p/kg, with Paul Taylor's early arrival rewarded with 580kg selling to 200p/kg. Blue Friesians sold to 191p/kg and 190p/kg.

Black and whites a very good go selling to 168p/kg for Liz & Gordon Kennerley and to 167p/kg for James Woolrich (£1032.06).

MORE WELL-FINISHED BULLS NEEDED

Please Note – for the first time for numerous years, there were no TB restricted prime cattle, bulls or cows presented for sale today.
