PRIME CATTLE (RED)

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831 192603

134 PRIME CATTLE

Fewer cattle, more buyers and a belting trade again. With good planting conditions and farmers busy in the fields, we were very short of cattle today. There was a fresh face to take numbers attending and he is back next week so please let us know your entries as soon as possible. 100 plus clean cattle will be needed, as well as many bulls and cows as we can get.

Some better quality bullocks forward today sold to 239p/kg, with heavy dairy bred steers to £1460. More steers and strong heifers will be required next week as the koshering trade springs back to life.

The heifer trade was a revelation with all heifers averaging 218p/kg including over-agers and Holsteins. Butchers heifers soared to 270p/kg. Heavy females sold to £1637 in the lump. More bidders for the bull entry today with all types with meat in fair demand. Best sucklers sold to 228p/kg. Holstein/Friesians with meat in strong demand to 171p/kg.

ONLY 8 COWS FORWARD

Increased buying support again. There is no point travelling your cows to other marts on this trade so please send before the trade slips this autumn. Best suckler crossbred British Blues sold to 158p/kg or £1292.44. Foreign cows more difficult to achieve satisfactory prices.

MORE COWS & STOCK BULLS NEEDED WEEK

75 CLEAN CATTLE

18 steers sold to av. 201p/kg – Shapey red Limousin 598kg from David Chilton topped this department at 239p/kg (£1429.22) closely followed by 476kg butchers bullocks from Ray & Marianne Bason at 238p/kg. Blonde crosses from Terrance Bebb added up nicely at £1460.96.

MORE BULLOCKS NEEDED WITH FRESH BUYING SUPPORT GUARENTEED NEXT WEEK

57 heifers sold to av. 218p/kg – A cracking red Limmie from David Preece took the headlines at 270p/kg for 482kg – a real result at £1301.40. Tony Barker took second spot at 258p/kg for 458kg. A super 688kg British Blue from Phil Clarke rang the bell at £1637.44, with Brian Wood dipping in his toe at £1481.76 for 686kg. A useful run of fed grass heifers for a “deserving cause” sold to 250p/kg on two occasions for handy Limousin cross.

59 BULLS SOLD TO AV. 174P/KG

Fewer best bulls once again but a firm trade on everything. 552kg Limousin suckler bulls from IGC Morris sold to 228p/kg, with handy shop bodies from John Gore and Joanne Haycocks to 210p/kg and 213p/kg respectively. 538kg Montbeliardes sold to 179p/kg from Bill Rodenhurst, with Holsteins to 171p/g from Colin Evans.

Dispersal Sale at Catstree House Farm, Worfield, Bridgnorth*Saturday 26th September 2015

A very successful sale was held on behalf of Jeremy & Susan Mapp who are retiring from the tenancy at Catstree House Farm. They have lived at the farm since 1946 with their family farming there for 144 years making them the longest serving tenants on Apley Estate. The sale was conducted in warm sunshine with some extremely well-presented and maintained machinery with three of the best tractors we have sold for some time. Buyers came from all over including Eire, Lancaster, Cheshire and Wales. We wish the Mapps well in their retirement.
