

CARMARTHEN LIVESTOCK MART WEEKLY REPORT – 03.10.22

26 BREEDING CATTLE

Auctioneer – Llŷr Jones 07812934964

Less suckler cows this month but considering that winter is around the corner, a very satisfying trade seen on all types. No big flashy outfits on show with the majority older Beef X Dairy cows with young calves at foot.

G Howell showed an excellent run of hard-working pairs with a 11 year old Friesian cow with an Angus calf reaching a top of £1150. Young Hereford 1st calver with a Hereford calf next at £1120 from T & T James. Several others over the £1000 here today.

Best of the breeding bull went to a pure-bred Lim from Davies Gwel Yr Haul which looked good money selling to £1720.

More numbers can be sold to an advantage in this section every month, with a ring full of buyers guaranteed!!

187 WEANED CALVES

A very good entry with trade holding very well all the way through. No sign of negativity when coming to the prices of young cattle today with some of the cattle looking as deer as they've been all summer.

18 month old Angus bullock took top spot selling to £1160 from Duffryn Farm who also sold a 16 month old Lim steer at £980. 12 month Charolais sailed to £910 from James & Sons with best of the Dairy blues to £800 from JM Williams. 10 month old Hereford Steer to £720 from FG Grigg who also got his Hereford Bull to £800. 6-month Sim bull to £790 again from Duffryn Farm and £780 for 6month Angus from the same home.

14 month old heifers saw highs of £960 from MJ Thomas with son Llŷr close behind selling his AA to £900.

6 month old Limmie heifer from R Jones looked good money at £800, with Charolais from L F James & Sons to £770. Dairy bred BB's to £660 from D A Davies & Son with Herefords from the same home to £625.

Another excellent monthly sale with positive signs of it growing month by month! Thank you for your continued support!
