210 PRIME LAMBS

Auctioneer- Dafydd Waters 07908809381

More fat this week and due to harder grading, a consistent trade as seen with lambs generally trading either side of 270ppk mark to highs of 283ppk from Williams Llandeilo. Topping in the lamb lump was Phillips Trawsmawr with heavies to £146.50 whilst close behind with a strong consignment of Charolais x lambs at £142 was Roberts Garn with more from the same home trading at £133 and £132 for lighter sorts. Blue faced lambs sold to £132 from Thomas Clear View. Lewis Login sold their entry to £128. Plenty of lambs over £120 whilst best finished types easily 280ppk and over all day. Best returns seen on the well finished lambs. More required next week please with strong buying competition on all weights!!

989 STORE LAMBS

Once again, a solid entry forward as we see close to 1000 lambs continuing to arrive every Friday at Carmarthen!! A quality and consistent entry of good farming sorts saw an increase in the average with many buyers of the opinion that the lambs were £5-£6 dearer per head despite fat lambs trade remaining at the same level to compare with last week. Topping the day at £141 was Whittal Willimas Maesmebyd for a cracking entry of blue Texel lambs whilst others from the same home reached £126. Strong entry of Texel x mule ram lambs from Price Pencraig traded at £123 with another pen of 33 of the same sorts to £117 from the same home. Another strong consignment of whitefaced lambs from Thomas Llainlas consistently traded £116-£120 for a run of 56 lambs whilst Suffolk lambs sold to £118 from Humphreys Meini. Despite the continental headlines, Welsh lambs continue to fly at Carmarthen as we see many of the strongest sorts either side of £100 barrier whilst an alley full of buyers present every week to bid competitively on all sorts. Big numbers required each week please!!
