Tremendous numbers once again with the Carmarthen dairy centre going from strength to strength. Trade much sharper than anticipated with the talk of milk price decreasing in the new year. A very good show of heifers sold to highs of £2480 which was the first animal in the ring today. She was a “Tirnewydd Secretariat Pearl” heifer, calved 2 weeks giving over 30L a day from Thomas & Davies Tre Newydd. She was followed at £2400 & £2380 from Rees Cilddewi Fawr who had a consignment of 12 super heifers. Plenty others over £2200 today with all heifers including ones with faults averaging £1987.25.

“Panthowell Jonas Glenys” a VG86 3rd calver from A J & D P Boucher topped the freshly calved cows at £2220.00. Others from the same home at £2150.

The special entry from Evans & Jones Pencilgan again sold well with their best freshly calved heifer selling to £1750. In calf heifers drew a lot of attention with D Davies getting his best to £1400. Frisian type in calf heifers saw highs of £1100 from H P Jones & Son LTD.
