

CARMARTHEN LIVESTOCK MART WEEKLY REPORT – 18.11.22

41 BARREN COWS/ 2 STOCK BULLS

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831192603

A cracking good trade in Carmarthen once again but not enough cattle to satisfy orders. There were a few more meaty sorts penned along with plainer types but very short of suckler cows throughout.

Griffiths Penrhiw Goch with their Herefords topped at 186ppk for 700kg, and their Angus to 178ppk for 658kg. 748kg Herefords from Charles Aberglwydeth sold to 180ppk or £1394.40 in the lump.

A sharp trade on all dairy barrens selling to 180ppk for 833kg from Howells Gwarallt or just below £1500!! Half meat steaking cows regularly in the 150-170ppk bracket depending on belly!!

A tremendous result on stock bulls with British blue cross bulls to 156ppk for 866kg (£1351) from Bowen Aberhenllan, and Hereford bulls to 152ppk for 900kg (£1368) from Davies Tirwaun.

50 + culls needed each week.

Diolch yn fawr am eich cefnogaeth parhaus!!

122 STORE CATTLE

Less stronger sorts about but a tidy go on everything except small, plain older types!

A stunning go on steers headed by Davies Gwndwn Mawr selling his Herefords to £1560. Younger Charolais steers from Bagshaw Troed Yr Yrfa sold to 248ppk or £765.

Limo heifers from Cilevan farm LTD topped the females at £1420 with Maskell & Son selling Frisian heifers to £1390. Plenty of over 30-month cattle sold tidily even if they were over 36 months when ready for the abattoir!!

200+ store cattle wanted each Friday. Let's get Carmarthen back to the thriving livestock centre it was built to be!

Diolch yn fawr.
