310 STORE CATTLE

Auctioneer – Llŷr Jones 07812934964

A fantastic weekly entry of over 300 head that had something for everyone!! Quality very highly rewarded with the leaner farming cattle looking very deer on the day as we see more buyers for those types ringside this week.

27-month-old Angus steer from Davies bros topped the section at £1860 with Simm bullocks selling next at £1750 and £1720 from W S & H L Price and D C Powell respectively. Charolais steers found highs of £1665 from E W Morgan & co with six BRB x dairy steers from W O Thomas looking well sold at £1635. Plenty over £1500 and trading up and over 300ppk.

Heifers sold to highs of £1660 for a powerful 560kg Charolais heifer from T N Jenkins with 3 lim x heifers 610kg from D T & H W Griffiths selling to £1630. 420kg BB heifer from D E Hughes looked tremendously well sold at £1450 and 345ppk, with several heifers trading either side of the 300ppk mark.

Bulls from A G & E J Bennett to £1150 with buyers here every Friday for all types of cattle!!!

Thank you very much for another super show of animals and we look forward to next Friday! Diolch.

1320 STORE LAMBS

Once again over the 1,000 head of stores forward with the strength and best quality sorts on the day flying to £115 for Texel x types from Morse, Caerenfys. More from the same home sold to £110.50 with a good run of lambs from Davies, Glanyfer reaching £103.50. Once again good Texel x types from Lewis, Cilyrychen selling to £100 with good sorts from John, Preswylfa maxxing at £97. Plenty of lambs over £90 on the day with the general entry being long term hill bred lambs trading anywhere from £45-£65. A lot of these over the scale would be very dear despite looking value for money on the day, in line with current fat trade. We go again next week with good buying support forward.
