1102 STORE LAMBS

Another cracking entry of over 1100 store lambs at Carmarthen with once again a strong selection of buyers forward on the day!! A good show of lambs resulted in a very consistent competition trade to highs of £132.50 for Dutch spotted lambs from Evans Bwlchgwynt. Strong Suffolk ram lambs sold to £129 from Rees Nantherwydd with more strong types to £128 from Watkins Cwmbach. More strong continental sorts from the same home traded at £123 and £122.50 with Welsh to £123.50 from Morgan Brynchwith. Another good consignment from Davies Morfa reached £121.50 with a good run from Evans Gorwel topping at £120.00 Endless lambs over £115 on the day with the forward types certainly in high demand whilst the smaller and longer-term lambs looking just as dear. Plenty of the small hill types would certainly be looking dear p/kg if put on the scale, resulting in a very good outlet for vendors o utilise their small lambs. More of the same required each week at Carmarthen!!

240 CULL EWES & RAMS

Better numbers in the cull section with some good headlines to show todays trade at a glance! Highs of £210 for a blue texel ewe from Rowlands Cilgynydd whilst it was a Charolais ewe next in line at £200 from Lewis Bolahaul. Another strong blue texel sold to £178 from Jones Whitland whilst it was Lewis Bolahaul again at £174 for strong sorts. A good consignment of strong shapely continental ewes from Jones Whitland sold to £159 and £155 whilst Honeybun Troedrhwiw sold their entry to £148. Endless ewes over £140 with ewes arguably £20-£30 dearer on the week with rams topping at £119 for a Texel from Lewis Bolahaul. The hill ewes remained a strong trade with Welsh to £90 from Morse Caerenfys and several pens of speckles to £90. Plenty of go also on the grazing types with more required each week with very strong buzzing support guaranteed.
