252 STORE CATTLE

Auctioneer – Llŷr Jones 07812934964

A fantastic day in the store ring with consistent numbers meeting a real fast trade. All types seem to be in huge demand with grass growing ensuring those younger sorts are well bid for and the rise in prime beef values making the strong cattle a remarkable trade in the store ring. Angus bullocks reached £1960 for 740kg from RJ & CM Howell with 640kg bullocks from the same home selling to £1719. 520kg suckler bred Limmie steers flew to £1680 (323.10p/kg) while 580kg dairy bred Blues from DIS EM & BS Jones sold to £1670 (288p/kg) with 515kg BRB X steers from the same home selling at £1550 (310p/kg). Plenty over £1500 with 470kg Charolais steers from DH LL Charles selling at £1460 (310p/kg). 7-month-old Charolais weighing just 290kg sold to £1035 and 356.9p/kg from TDL Jones with plenty of runs of younger sorts 320p/kg and over. Dairy bred steers generally 280-300p/kg with demand for all sorts very high! 470kg 9-month-old BRB bull from W Dickson sold at £1300 with older bulls from GR Evans selling at £1240 (480kg).

Heifers sold to highs of £1580 (535kg) for 20-month-old dairy bred Limmie's from JH Crook & Partners with 540kg dairy bred Blues from HI Evans sold next at £1500 (278p/k). Trade for heifers again generally 280-300p/kg with younger farming females reaching highs of 331p/kg for 350kg Charolais ending up at £1160 from P Evans & R Solomon.

101 CULL EWES & RAMS

Same story this week in the cull section, a very good trade on all types forward but just not enough numbers to satisfy full demand. Despite this, highs of £182 was seen on two occasions for strong Texel ewes from Thomas, Ystlys y Coed. More strong ewes sold to £148 from Evans, Cwmfran whilst Thomas, Ystlys y Coed had another well meated sort at £141. A pen of leaner Texel X ewes from Davies, Penlanwynt traded at £144 with Easy Care ewes to £110 from, Penlan. Plenty of ewes over the £100 mark on the day with the smaller and plainer sorts looking well sold on the day. More ewes desperately needed with vendors rewarded with a very competitive trade at Carmarthen every Friday.
