

CARMARTHEN LIVESTOCK MART WEEKLY REPORT – 04.09.23

107 BREEDING CATTLE

Auctioneer – Llŷr Jones 07812934964

Auctioneer – Elwyn Thomas 07989850307

A very busy section this month with large entries bringing a full arena of people to Carmarthen mart. With the recent lift in barren cow prices, it meant that the cows and calves especially the older outfits benefitted and all types looked well sold for the time of year!

5th calver Charolais cow with a very young heifer calf at foot topped at £1650 from D A Jones and a Saler cow with a Charolais calf sold next at £1450 from T Powell. BRB cows to £1400 with best of the Welsh Blacks to £1250.

In calf heifer from R G & D Hughes topped at £960 for a BRB calving in two months' time. H W Mainwaring topping his run of cows at £870 with a very mixed entry of bulls getting to a top of £1250 for a 2-year-old Hereford from E W & S A Davies.

A full home of buyers which was pleasing to see considering the long-awaited silage making weather!! Trade held firm throughout for a large entry of calves this month!

The best was in huge demand and looked very dear on the day. 11-month-old Limmie bullock from IM, CA & LM Jones topped at £1140 with 3 from R C James next at £1000. Plenty getting over £900 with dairy bred blues (10-month-old) looking good money at £805.

Heifers topped at £940 for a bunch of five from D & A G Harries as a 7-month-old Limmie heifer sold next at £890. Blondes at £880 with plenty of the best weaned heifers at £750-£850 today. A cracking entry of feeding bulls forward from several homes were well competed for. 11-month Limmie from DE & MS Davies sold to £1195 with I H & D J Davies selling their best 3 Simmie x bulls out of Friesian cows to £1090 and others to £1000.

Thanks to everyone for another fantastic day at Carmarthen mart, your support is very much appreciated!
