

CARMARTHEN LIVESTOCK MART WEEKLY REPORT – 01.09.23

81 BARREN COWS

Auctioneer – Elwyn Thomas 07989850307

Excellent numbers in the barren section for the 12 potential buyers to compete for, resulting with a very good trade on all types with good numbers of beef types forward. Top of the day in lump was 86-month-old Charolais bull at £1790 from Evans Cilmaenllwyd farm followed by 89-month-old blue cow at £1520 from Jones Brynclwyd. Dairy cows peaked at £1250 for 78-month-old Holstein from Evans Llwynpiod Farm.

Topping the p/kg was 530kg limmie cow at 243ppk from Thomas & Davies Pengraig fawr followed by 20-month-old Lim steer at 231ppk from Davies Upper Cavan Villa. Top in the dairy was 27-month-old heifer from Huges Jordanston at 183p/kg.

Thank you, vendors, dealers and ND staff, for your support!

255 STORE CATTLE

Auctioneer – Llyr Jones 07812934964

A very busy section once again and thanks to all vendors and buyers for making it all possible! An incredible trade witnessed from start to finish on all types with the stronger end a fierce competition.

More numbers meant more buyers ringside and strong buying support is guaranteed weekly here at Carmarthen mart. Store steers topped at £1750 from R E Beynon and partners with other dairy bred blues from the same home to £1630. Lim bullocks to £1615 from Cilevan Farm LTD with any number of strong bullocks £1450-£1550. Friesian steers to £1270 with best of the yearlings' bullocks peaking at £1200.

Heifers topped at £1630 for a BRB from Cilevan Farm LTD. Fleshy 28-month-old Hereford from A & N J Davies next at £1510 and the best of the Limmies to £1430. Feeding bulls to £1115 from D Harries who also sold other Charolais to £1040.

250-300 cattle required weekly with every Friday, with Carmarthen proving to be the place to sell your store cattle.

Diolch am eich cefnogaeth parhaus. Thank you very much for your continued support.

Please do not hesitate to contact me to discuss the trade-Diolch.

170 PRIME LAMBS

Auctioneer – Dafydd Waters 07908809381

Another day, another pleasing trade at Carmarthen mart! Heaviest lambs sold to £126.50 from Pincombe, Henllan Farm whilst a pen of smart 39.5kg lambs sold to £114 or 289ppk from Roberts, Llwynpartridge. The general run of the trade was 250-260ppk with leaner sorts trading at 230-240ppk resulting in a competitive average of 253.71ppk. Meat is a premium whilst weight is money, any leaner smaller types better sold in the store section.

100 STORE LAMBS

Auctioneer – Dafydd Waters 07908809381

Less numbers in this section this week but with many long-term small lambs forward, lambs certainly looked dearer with farmer buyers adding their stamp to the trade! Strongest on the day sold to £90 from Humphreys, Llwynhelyn with many trading in excess of £65. Store lambs wanted every Friday at Carmarthen in order to satisfy buyer demand.

524 BREEDING EWES

Another successful evening breeding sheep sale at Carmarthen mart with over 500 going under the hammer. Smart texel ewes from Davies, Cwmisaf traded at £195 with Jones, Tyllwyd also selling to £195 for their excellent pen of coloured mules. Suffolk yearlings topped at £175 from Jones, Bryn Pedyll with an excellent run of 2year old mules from Goodwin, Penddol reaching £170. In the ram section, a 3yr old Charolais ram topped the evening at £600 from Harries, Alltynadda with a texel ram from Davies & Sauro, Tynewydd sold at £520. Crossbred tups sold to £490 from Drefach Farms Ltd with tups generally looking in high demand as tugging season is close around the corner. Don't miss our next sale on Friday 15th of September. 5:30 start!

Entries to mart office or one of the team please.
