

MACHINERY REPORT

21.09.24

First sale of the Autumn kicked off in style with rows of quality items forward. Trade was very lively from start to finish with buyers looking to invert before the winter months. Top price of the day went for the Pratley sheep race at £7000. A flatbed sold to £3750, with a fine run of well maintained David Brown tractors sold to £3020 twice. Best of the stock trailers sold to £2750 and another to £2500. The caravans met a slightly seasonal trade with one selling to £1900.

Thanks to all vendors for your continued support, our next sale will be next month- October the 19th.

We are excited to announce that our next sale will include live streaming and bidding on Marteye!!

We hope this will add value to our customers items and provide an extra source of competition!!

Diolch.
