

NEWCASTLE EMLYN LIVESTOCK MART WEEKLY REPORT – 24.09.24

201 STORES & BARREN COWS

A bumper entry of cattle this Tuesday with over 200 head making a fantastic trade throughout. Credit to all Emlyn vendors for a quality show of cattle with prices £50-£100 up on previous weeks as we see one or two fresh faces ringside to buy!

Big strong cattle stole the headlines with fleshy 17-month-old Angus steers selling to top of £1890 from M W Davies & C Jones who sold the next strongest bullock at £1790. £1790 also achieved for a BRB X dairy steer from T C & E G G Evans with 26-month-old steer from E M & M E Smith selling at £1760. Plenty over £1700 with Blonde steers to £1640 from T T Owens. Young 6-month-old steers from G Webb looked well sold at £1000 with feeding Welsh Black bulls from D J G Lewis selling to highs of £1160.

E L Davies sold three belting Lim x heifers with his eldest topping at £1690 and others to £1680 & £1610. 17-month-old Angus heifer sold to £1570 with Charolais of the same age from T T Owens selling £1540. Blonde x from T T Owens sold to £1480 with a dairy bred blue from the same home selling at £1450. 6-month-old Charolais sold to £900 from G Webb with empty Friesian heifer from A H Davies looking well sold at £1000 each.

A couple of cows & calves from faithful vendor J Francis sold to highs of £1820 and another outfit at £1480. A similar entry is needed in two weeks' time, Tuesday 8th of October. Entries to-
