129 STORE & BREEDING CATTLE

Another pleasing day at Emlyn livestock mart with a super trade seen throughout. Generally, a younger show of cattle with plenty of competition seen on both dairy and beef bred types. 15-month-old suckler bred Angus steer from M A Tromans sold to highs of £1620, with a 26-month-old Simmie from Evans & James to £1560 & £1540. Dairy bred Blues to £1420 from JA & S Evans who had Charolais to £1340. Best of the yearling steers sold at £1210 for a 13-month-old Sim steer from Evans & James, while a run of 12-month-old Charolais from AL Evans & Co sold at highs of £1195. Friesian steers looked well sold at £1170 from EH & J Jones, with Fleckvieh bullocks from the same home also knocked down at £1170.

Heifers sold to highs of £1410 for a 20-month-old Angus from MA Tromans, with PJ Hugel selling Blues to £1260 and Friesians to £1190. Hereford heifers sold at £1150 from EH & J Jones, with 11-month-old Angus heifer topping the yearling heifers at £1040.

Breeding bulls sold to a strong demand with a 20-month-old pedigree Lim bull selling to £2600 from ST & WA Jenkins, with a 7-year-old Hereford breeding bull selling to £1750 from JD & SC Edwards.

A few cows and calves forward selling to highs of £1880 from JA & EE James.
