

NEWCASTLE EMLYN LIVESTOCK MART WEEKLY REPORT – 05.11.24

5 BARREN COWS

TB tested cows meeting a premium with all five cows trading from 168ppk to 177ppk. 710kg Angus cow & 770kg Welsh black cow both sold to 177ppk from D W & N S Jones and C Snow respectively.

The heaviest of the two topped the section in the lump at £1362.90. More cows needed after today's trade with the tested section here at Emlyn proving to be a very competitive way to trade your barren cows.

54 STORE CATTLE

Less numbers going into November with cattle numbers declining nationally. Trade held up well and would look dearer than previous months. Strong 25-month-old dairy bred Lims from A & T Jones sold well with their heaviest selling to £1660 and others to £1470. Angus off Welsh black cows sold to highs of £1220 from C Snow with dairy bred Angus from L J Phillips selling at £1120. Heifers from A & T Jones topped at £1425 with suckler bred Lims from S L Hillyer sold to £1340. Angus from T R & O L Davies sold to £1270 and others Angus to £1200 from Snow. Plenty of heifers over £1100 and more cattle needed in two weeks' time – Tuesday 19th of November.
