A very enjoyable day which included the Christmas Holstein South Wales Show & Sale! Quality was at its highest and both Judges Mr O Duthie & Mr M Sevenoaks had a difficult task in front of them. Champion of the day was awarded to R D law for an 86-point 1 year old fresh heifer "Fryn Pepper Patricia". An outstanding heifer backed by 7 gens of VG & EX sold to the judge M Sevenoaks for £3200. A second calver from the same home "Fryn ambition Misha" VG87 sold 90 days into her lactation went to K Marshall for £2800. Plenty of the quality end £2300 and over today with very pleasing averages achieved. Heifers sold at £1930.47 average and cows came back at £1803.55. Winning the Harfat championship was a Rosina, a granddaughter of the great "Sprite Rosina" from S Davies & Family. She sold due in February with her 1st calf at £3000 to Judge Mr O Duthie. Heifer sold to a £1000 from Birdcombe Farms for a stylish chief daughter and joined the Hammett family. Six-month-old calf from I Morgan and family "Eric Realmaker Norah" sold at £750 and joined A Thomas Corn Hwrdd. A very busy and successful day with all show results listed below. A big thanks to our vendors and purchasers for your continued support and to both our judges for their valued time today. Yet again a thank you to all our sponsors for the day and to Cogent for being main sponsors of the show. Finally, thanks to all Holstein South Wales club officials for another smooth and well-run show and to all our hard-working staff here at Carmarthen mart!
