

CARMARTHEN LIVESTOCK MART WEEKLY REPORT – 05.08.22

36 BARREN COWS

Auctioneer – Mark Burgoyne 07831192603

It was great to see more cows forward and a good trade to match. As dead weight centres dropped values the live auctions are sticking it well! No doubt there are more cows coming forward where the grass disappeared and farmers pray for rain!

Tested cows set the trade off on a good footing with beef shorthorn cows selling to 204p/kg for 688kg and £1403.52 in the bulk from Rowlands, Llywn Ifan Farm. Herefords from James, Ty Gwyn sold to 191p/kg for 760kg (£1451.60).

Dairy cows were milky and a lot plainer types generally, but sold above expectation to 185p/kg for 711kg from James, Blaenau Bach with Williams, Dolau Cothi farm selling 753kg to £1362.93.

Non tested continentals sold to 200p/kg 590kg for Blues from Thomas, Plas Y Fforest with 705kh to 189p/kg from Williams, Wern Fro.

4 STOCK BULLS

Bulls in demand saw Charolais 713kg selling to 187p/kg £1333.31 from Hall, Fronfelen with older Charolais to £1324.86 for 933kg from Rowlands, Llwyn Ifan. Very fit Herefords sold to 159p/kg for 1075kg or £1709.25 in the bulk from Gibbon & Son, Parc Y Berllan.

Eight bidders for cows and bulls each week. Come and try the P/KG at Carmarthen and sell with competition. Diolch yn fawr!!
