A spectacular December Christmas show and sale, which attracted both commercial and deep pedigree milkers to Carmarthen and what a phenomenal day it was in the sale ring as we saw 7 individuals cross £3000. Judge of the day Mr Charlie George, Brynhyfryd picked out the 1st prize cow as this year's champion Cadog Vackje 19 from D S Richards, she sold giving over 40kg a day and sailed to £3700 to the Brynhyfryd herd. 1st prize senior heifer caught the eye of Mr George and made reserve champion. She was Tanglwyst Applejax Camilla 2 from R & M Lougher and sold to £3400 again to the Brynhyfryd herd. Champion of the Harfat trophy was rewarded to A H Wilson of Tregibby Holsteins for a BB bred heifer BB applejax sheira 11, backed by 10 gens of VG & EX dams, she sold at £3400 to the Evans family FFynnonwen. Other highlights today saw Acresdown Davinci, bred by 13 straight EX cows sell to top the section this week at £3900 with her A lot heifer calf top the baby calves at £850. 22 fresh sold over £2500 with 41 out of the 55 fresh forward today selling £2000 and over. Heifers levelled out at £2421 and cows back at £2000.

Youngstock saw plenty of interest with January and February heifers from J G T Griffiths selling from £1550 to high of £1780. Recently served heifer from W A Jones & Co sold to £1200 with best bullers from the same home to £1000. Monty x calves sold to £305 three times from J M & B E James with others to £245.

A special entry of Gurnsey cows on behalf of D A Davies was well supported with fresh cows reaching £1380 with plenty around the £1000.
