81 CALVES

Auctioneer – Llyr Jones 07812 934964

Consistency once again, with farmers being awarded with some excellent prices. Trade was very brisk for the first quality calves with second quality back on the week, with current rearing costs definitely affecting some of the trade. BB calves from Rees Bros topped at £350 for both bull and heifer calves. Other BB bulls sold to £340 from GE Evans with three more BB bulls over the £300 mark. Charolais bulls to £272 from Nikki Williams, with R & ED Evans getting the best Lim bull to £270. Best of the Natives saw Herefords from Graham George to £165.

Other BB heifers got to £310 from TC & EGG Evans with Lim heifers from R & ED Evans to £160. Only a few more heifers over £100, with some of the younger, smaller heifer calves difficult to place. Black & white bull calves saw a steady trade of £10-£30 generally, with the better types £50 plus.
