

NEWCASTLE EMLYN LIVESTOCK MART WEEKLY REPORT – 05.12.24

46 CALVES

A cracking entry of calves this morning and no surprise really following the consistent competitive trade over the last few weeks!! Blue bulls top the day at £355 twice from Maeslan Farm LTD with more from the same home to £320, £300, £270 and £260. Angus bulls sold to £250 from George Mount with more Angus bulls to £245 and £205 from Williams Black Oak. It was just as tasty in the heifer section with blue heifers topping at £290 and £280 x 3 from Maeslan LTD. More blue heifers sold to £270 and £235 from Evans Blaenberllan, Williams Black Oak sold their blues to £185 whilst Hereford heifers reached £150 from Maeslan LTD.

Once again strong buying support with more entries needed like today at Emlyn Please!!

The annual tradition of prime beasts did not disappoint again this year with a quality line up forward. 3 steers and 2 heifers battled it out for champion individual with a lot of head scratching done by judge Mr Eddie Morgan of Cilycwm. 1st prized steer from D S Thomas who is apparently retiring was awarded the champion. A tremendous 700kg Lim x bullock flew to 380ppk and £2660 in the lump. Purchasers was Golwg Y Mor butchers. Thanks to all involved and we'll see you in the ring again next year Dai!! Llongyfarchiadau!!

Reserve champion was awarded to the best heifer from I J Phillips who sold 320ppk and £1696. Other highlights saw 2nd prize heifer from G D Jenkins selling at 330ppk and £1782 in the lump with T T Owens selling his Angus steer to £2041 for 650kg. Commercial steer from K Taylor looked well sold with both 680kg steer selling to 272 & 268ppk.

Congratulations to all winners and a big thanks to all exhibitors for your continued support.

May I also thank the judge Me E Morgan for his time and a special thanks to Oil 4 Wales who sponsored the prize for our champion beast here today!!

641 PRIME LAMBS (AVG 284 p/kg)

A quality show of lambs with not even the bad weather able to stop the high standard from flooding into the market this morning!! Judge Mr E Morgan had a tough task on his hands with the champion eventually given to D L & M Jones for 47.5kg beltex lambs. These flew to £230 or 484ppk and sold to local butchers Dewi James ai Gwmni! Reserve sold to £180 for 44kg again from the Jones Family and selling to Dewi James. Trade brisk throughout although not to high saw the beginning of the week. Plenty of handy weight lambs 300-310ppk with meat essential to achieve this price range. Heavy lambs generally 275-285 with 53kg Texels from G L & E L L Evans selling to £153. 45.5kg lambs traded £130-£140 with any leaner sorts back at £125-£129. A big thanks to all vendors for their support week in week out and to Mr E Morgan for his time in judging this morning!!
